ADVAIR®

(Combination of Flovent and Serevent)

Other names: Fluticasone and Salmeterol

Type of medicine: Combination medicine: Anti-inflammatory and beta-agonist
Control medicine for everyday

Why you need it: To relax the muscles around the breathing tubes and decrease swelling and mucus in the breathing tubes.

How it is given: Dry powdered inhaler/diskus

Side effects: Infection in the mouth
Sore throat
Nervousness

Tips for Taking

1. Store device in a cool dry place.
2. Do not shake device after getting it ready for a dose.
3. Do not exhale into the device
4. Never wash mouthpiece or take apart device.
5. Rinse mouth out after use.

Please discuss any questions about this medicine with your doctor or nurse.