

Hello and Welcome!

My name is Calvin Allen. I am the Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resource Officer here at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

I wanted to personally thank you for choosing CHOP and welcome you to this great institution. The greatness of this institution depends on employees like you. You're the ones who make a difference every day in the lives of children.

Over the past 160+ years CHOP has had a profound impact on the lives of children and their families. This is a place where breakthroughs happen every day and discoveries are utilized to truly make a difference. I think that's why it is so special to work here.

This is more than just a job. It is a career where you will have an opportunity to make a difference no matter where you are within our extensive network. All of us have the opportunity to make breakthroughs happen. Whether in a direct patient care position or behind the scenes, the work you do really has a profound impact on the lives of children and their families.

No doubt you made your choice to work here because of the Hospital's rich history. But it is the contributions of our staff that make the CHOP culture so special. We are excited to have you here.

Thanks again and welcome!
