Quiz

Circle the correct answer.

1. Vaccines:
   a. provide protection from specific diseases
   b. are the most effective means of controlling infectious diseases
   c. take advantage of the body’s immunologic memory
   d. all of the above

2. Respiratory droplets are produced when doing all of the following except:
   a. touching contaminated surfaces
   b. coughing
   c. sneezing

3. Which of the following can cause chronic liver disease?
   a. hepatitis B
   b. diphtheria
   c. hepatitis A
   d. a and c

4. The most common sexually transmitted disease is:
   a. influenza
   b. mumps
   c. human papillomavirus
   d. varicella

5. Outcomes from rubella are worst among:
   a. high-school students
   b. pregnant women
   c. the elderly
   d. adolescents

Fill in the blanks.

6. Tetanus is unique because ____________________________________________.

7. In February of 2010, the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP) recommended _____________ for all people in the United States age 6 months and older.

8. Define epidemic: _________________________________________________________
   _______________________________________________________________________

9. Coughing and sneezing produce _________________, which can ________________
   _______________.

The Children’s Hospital
of Philadelphia®